Atharva Salitri

has successfully completed the online Specialization

People & Soft Skills: Essential for Professional Success

In this specialization, learners gained essential knowledge and skills to develop “success skills” also known as soft skills. These skills give learners the ability to be successful in their professional life. After completing the six courses offered in this program, earners of this certificate show proficiency in collaborating effectively, delivering quality work, solving problems with creative thinking, interpersonal skills, and creating quality presentations. At the end of the specialization, learners completed a final quiz inspired by real world situations to demonstrate and apply their new knowledge of People skills.
